Alfa Laval wins SEK 50 million food order in India

Alfa Laval – a world leader in heat transfer, centrifugal separation and fluid handling – has won an order to supply a complete process line for a vegetable protein extraction plant in India. The order, booked in the Food Technology & Life Science segment, has a value of approximately SEK 50 million. Delivery is scheduled for 2016.

The order comprises the delivery of a complete process line for refining de-oiled soy seed into vegetable protein, sugar concentrates and fiber fractions. The process line includes separators, filters and heat exchangers.

“I am very pleased to announce a large order from the Indian food market.” says Lars Renström, President and CEO of the Alfa Laval Group. “It proves our strong position in India – that shows signs of increased activity.”

Did you know... that Alfa Laval has been present in India for almost 80 years as the company opened its first office already in 1937?

About Alfa Laval
